Northwest Hospital at La Paloma Grand Opening and Ribbon Cutting Ceremony

Tucson, Ariz. (October 29, 2008) — Northwest Hospital at La Paloma had its grand opening and ribbon cutting ceremony the morning of October 28, 2008. This new urgent care medical center at 4001 E. Sunrise Drive is the hospital's fourth in the Tucson metro area. "Building this new facility is part of our strategic plan to meet the health care needs of the many people who live in the foothills area," said Paul Kappelman, Northwest Medical Center's chief executive officer. "We can meet these health care needs not only by opening the urgent care facility, but by bringing a variety of quality physicians to this area."

The facility cost $8 million and will occupy 18,000 square feet, with an additional 4,000 square feet of space for expansion. The clinic has lab and X-ray services, mobile digital mammography and four physician offices. It will be open daily from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., including holidays.

Diamond Ventures founder and CEO, Mr. Donald Diamond, was in attendance and let everyone know how proud he is of his team in creating another successful community asset like this modern up to date community health clinic. Other DVI executives in attendance were David Goldstein (President), Ken Abrahams (Executive V.P.), Bill Kelley (CFO), Chad Kolodizner (V.P.), Priscilla Storm (V.P.), Mark Weinberg (V.P.), Bob Iannarino (V. P. ), Bob Kolt (Construction Manager) who oversaw the project start to finish, and Bert Dover, assistant to Mr. Kelley.

Representing DVI's partners from Scotia LLC were Peter Aranoff (President), Jon Fenton (V.P.) and Randy Agron (CFO).
